

http://trib.com/news/state-and-regional/year-old-faces-manslaughter-charge-for-cheyenne-shooting/article_df7f9a09-457b-5fbf-b37c-be4bf7cab001.html

<

PREVIOUS

Motorcyclist dies in Laramie crash

>

NEXT UP

Wyoming transportation funds remain stable despite downturn

18-year-old faces manslaughter charge for Cheyenne shooting

Associated Press Updated Sep 22, 2016

Thinkstock

Buy

CHEYENNE — Laramie County authorities have located an 18-year-old man wanted for information relating to a Cheyenne shooting death and have booked him into jail on suspicion of manslaughter.

Sheriff's deputies had wanted to question Austin Daniels after 19-year-old Mark Dreiman was fatally shot at a home on Saturday. Sheriff's Capt. Linda Gesell says Daniels was found Wednesday at the Rodeo Inn in Cheyenne with a handgun.

She says Daniels had initially been taken into custody on a warrant for failure to appear in court for a burglary case. He was later jailed for investigation of manslaughter.

Dreiman died Saturday after being shot in the upper chest and neck area. His father, Karl Dreiman, says he believes the shooting was an accident.

Currents

Where does he stand? Donald Trump on the issues

People in these metros pay the highest taxes

Trump jokes, surprise wins and other highlights from the 2016 Emmys

Today In History, Sept. 23: Little Rock Central High School

Today's Birthdays, Sept. 23: Bruce Springsteen

Today's top pics: Violence in Charlotte and more

Today's Birthdays, Sept. 22: Scott Baio

How well do Jason Smyth and Michael McKillop know each other? | Team Mates

Keystone Konfrontation: Unbeaten Steelers at unbeaten Eagles