ARDMORE, Okla. (KXII) -- An Ardmore man was robbed -- then shot -- on Monday by a stranger .

It happened at the corner of Willowridge and Fourth Avenue.

Friends of the victim tell News 12 that the suspect asked him for a cigarette. When he refused, the suspect shot him in the upper left leg and took his wallet.

Ardmore Police don't have any suspects yet, but say they're investigating.

The victim is now back home recovering.
