

Fatal NYPD shooting of Queens teen holding scissors spurs outrage over cops' actions

By Graham Rayman | grayman@nydailynews.com | New York Daily News, Rocco Parascandola | rparascandola@nydailynews.com | New York Daily News, Elizabeth Keogh | ekeogh@nydailynews.com | New York Daily News and Josephine Stratman | jstratman@nydailynews.com | New York Daily News
March 28, 2024 at 7:28 p.m.

Win Rozario (Family Handout)

As new details emerge on a teen's fatal shooting by an NYPD officer on Wednesday, outrage has bubbled up over the tactics used by the officers who responded to a 911 call made by the teen himself.

Win Rozario's death has also raised broader questions about how the city responds to mental health emergencies, fueling criticism that the city's use of police officers as de-fa ...