The victims are identified as Trent Tuner, 24, Vini Haney, 34, and her child, Truth Turner. All three were wounded from gunfire directed from outside their residence into the home.

While the special agents were still at the Mabry Street address investigating the scene, gunfire was heard at a nearby residence later determined by local police to be outside 1633 Front Street. The occupant of the residence had moved out the previous day.

A short-time later Shandria Adams called police to her home at 1435 Front Street. Adams stated someone had fired a gun into the home. Adams and her infant child escaped injuries from the shots fired into the home.

Arkansas State Police and Eudora Police are searching for suspects believed to have been involved in the shootings.
