Published 10/10 2016 04:42PM Updated 10/14 2016 04:51PM EUDORA, Ark. - Nineteen-month-old Truth Turner has died after being shot in a drive-by shooting Sunday night. She and her parents were all injured by the gunfire at their home.

Truth Turner's mother, Viniki Haney, and father, Trent Turner, have both been released from the hospital.

After the incident Sunday, Truth was airlifted by medical helicopter to Children's Hospital in Little Rock and was reported to be in serious condition.

Eudora Police responded to the incident at 240 South Mabry Street shortly before 11 p.m., where the three wounded victims were located.

The victims are identified as Trent Turner, 24, Viniki Haney, 34, and her child, Truth Turner. All three were wounded from gunfire directed from outside their residence into the home.

Local police contacted special agents of the Arkansas State Police Criminal Investigation Division to assist in the investigation. While the special agents were still at the Mabry Street address investigating the scene, gunfire was heard at a nearby residence later determined by local police to be outside 1633 Front Street. The occupant of the residence had moved out the previous day.

A short-time later Shandria Adams called police to her home at 1435 Front Street. Adams stated someone had fired a gun into the home. Adams and her infant child escaped injuries from the shots fired into the home.

Arkansas State Police and Eudora Police are searching for suspects believed to have been involved in the shootings.
