The Milwaukee Police Department identified four people who were killed in Milwaukee over the weekend — three by gunfire and one in a crash.

The man who was shot and killed in the 4000 block of N. 19th St. Friday night (</story/news/crime/2016/10/08/overnight-shootings-leave-1-dead-2-hurt/91783670/>) was identified as Patrick D. Washington, 24. Police continue to search for suspects, according to a news release from Milwaukee police.

In a separate incident, the 65-year-old man shot and killed in a jazz club in the 2400 block of W. Fond du Lac Avenue Friday (</story/news/crime/2016/10/08/man-found-slain-his-jazz-club/91816078/>) was identified as Donald R. Lewis, 65. A 30-year-old Milwaukee man remains in custody in connection with Lewis' death and the Milwaukee Police Department will present the case against him to the Milwaukee County District Attorney's Office in the coming days, the news release said.

A man who was shot in the 5200 block of W. Hampton Ave. Sunday morning and later died at a hospital (</story/news/crime/2016/10/09/1-killed-1-seriously-injured-overnight-shootings/91822584/>) was identified as Timothy L. Olinger, 32. Police continue to search for three men who are believed to be involved in the incident, the news release said.

Anyone with information about the incident or suspects is asked to call the Milwaukee Police Department at (414) 935-7360.

A woman who was killed in a crash on at N. 51st Blvd. and W. Auer Ave. early Sunday morning (</story/news/crime/2016/10/09/woman-killed-west-side-crash/91822372/>) was identified as Savanna P. Scott, 23.

The driver and passenger in the car with Scott, a 22-year-old woman and a 25-year-old man, were taken into custody after seeking medical treatment. Police will present this case to the district attorney's office in the coming days for charges, according to the news release.
